

Welcome to Thornhill Presbyterian Church

Over the Lenten and Easter season there are many opportunities to worship with us and engage in meaningful, faith-building activities.

We welcome you to participate and enrich your Easter experience as well as your faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. The following are some of the highlights through Lent and Easter.

Join us for Ecumenical worship during Lent every Sunday at 4:00 p.m. These meaningful worship services are hosted by the Thornhill Ministerial. Locations can be found on the posters in the foyer or on the website.

Palm Sunday Worship

Sunday April 14 – 11:00 a.m.

Come and experience with joy the celebration of Jesus as King of our lives.

Thursday, April 18 - 7:30 p.m.

This service of worship commemorates the last supper of our Lord with his disciples. This sombre and reflective service is held in the Chapel and the Sacrament of Holy Communion is shared.

Friday, April 19, 2019

Church Family Breakfast

Lenten Sermon Series:

Nine Necessary Questions

Whether you have been raised in the church or you are somewhere on the edges, it is not unusual to find yourself asking some basic questions of faith and life. What better time than Lent to ask some of those questions? It is in the asking of them that we are drawn to the ultimate question Easter asks and answers: Is there hope for life now and eternally?
